

Command

No. 10 Don't covet

What do I want?

How might those turn into inordinate desires?

How can I protect myself from going too far (see Matt 5:30 for a good allegory)?

How can I give these desires over to God?

